Special Rules

Air Support - p.167

The Moraine Saulnier MS.406 I is a dedicated air superiority fighter. It can only be used for Fighter Interception and cannot be used for Ground Attack.

Armoured Company - p.119

The HQ, Light and Cruiser Platoons of an Armoured Company operate as separate platoons, each with their own Platoon Command team. The HQ Platoon is a headquarters in name only. It operates the same as any other platoon led by a normal Platoon Command team.

Although its platoons operate as separate platoons for all other purposes, an Armoured Company deploys all at the same time as a single platoon. For example, this means that you treat the entire Armoured Company as a single platoon when calculating the number of platoons held in Ambush or Reserve.

Armoured Regiment HQ - p.118

Remember, all Light Mk VI C and A19, A10, and A13 Cruiser tanks use the Tally Ho! And Broadside special rules on page 135.

Divisional Cavalry Carrier Platoon - p.123

Carrier Platoons are Reconnaissance Platoons.
